MARCH

History

Incorporated in 1997, BiasHELP, Inc. is an independent 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization and is an affiliate of the Long Island Network of Community Services, Inc. (LINCS).

Mission

BiasHELP, Inc. is a independent 501(c)(3) not-for-profit agency dedicated to prevention of bias crimes, hate-related harassment, bullying, technobullying and discrimination. Located on Long Island, BiasHELP provides programs and services locally, regionally and nationally. BiasHELP considers an action to be discriminatory when a person or group is targeted, in whole or in part, because of their perceived differences, including race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, age, disability or sexual orientation.

BiasHELP's programs include prevention education, community and school-based technical assistance, support of aggressive public policies that ensure human rights protections and effective media responses to current social issues.

Services

Education

- BiasHELP's team of skilled educators conduct specially tailored trainings in schools, small businesses, government agencies, religious institutions, non-profit organizations, and corporations.
- Specially tailored workshops and trainings are available on a wide variety of topics including bullying, technobullying, cultural sensitivity/stereotyping, NYS Hate Crime law, the continuum of prejudicial behavior, violence prevention, suicide prevention, anger management, LGBT, Dignity for All Students Act (DASA) compliance and more.
- Bias/hate crimes workshops are available to those who have committed bias offenses. Referrals to this program come from the courts, probation, youth organizations, lawyers, schools and parents.
- Against Violence & Oppression in Communities Everywhere (AVOICE) is a BiasHELP project that fosters unity and respect among diverse communities by making an impact among vulnerable children and their families at 4 levels: the individual, family, agency and community.
- Certified educators provide anger and aggression management trainings with post-incarcerated individuals through a collaborative project for the Office of Minority Health (OMH) with other not-for-profits.
- Through a joint project with the Long Island Network of Community Services (LINCS), BiasHELP's certified trainer is available to work with schools on the implementation of the foremost bullying prevention program available, the Olweus Bullying Prevention Program (OBPP). OBPP is a whole school program that has been proven to prevent or reduce bullying throughout a school setting.
